

How to connect your office laptop using CureMD Secure Remote Desktop Gateway Services

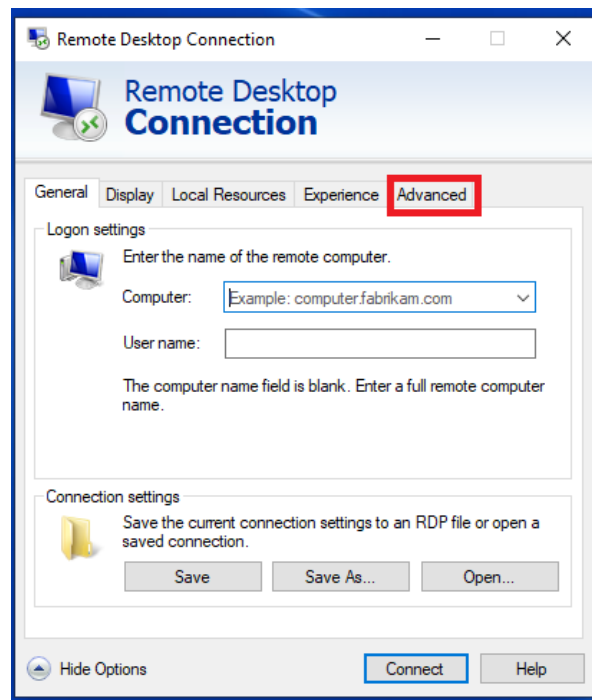

Step 1: On your home computer search for Remote Desktop Connection and click open:

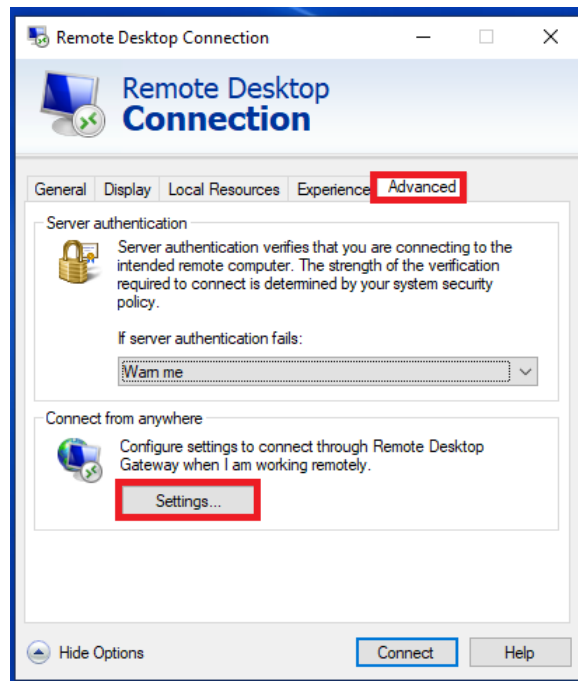

Step 2: Click Show Options:

Step 3: Click Advanced:

Step 4: Click Settings:

Step 5: Click Use these RD Gateway server settings and enter rds4.curemd.com

Click to check Bypass RD Gateway server for local addresses

Click to check Use my RD Gateway credentials for the remote computer

RD Gateway Server Settings

Remote Desktop Connection

Connection settings

☐ Automatically detect RD Gateway server settings

☒ Use these RD Gateway server settings:

Server name: rds4.curemd.com

Logon method: Allow me to select later

☒ Bypass RD Gateway server for local addresses

☐ Do not use an RD Gateway server

Logon settings

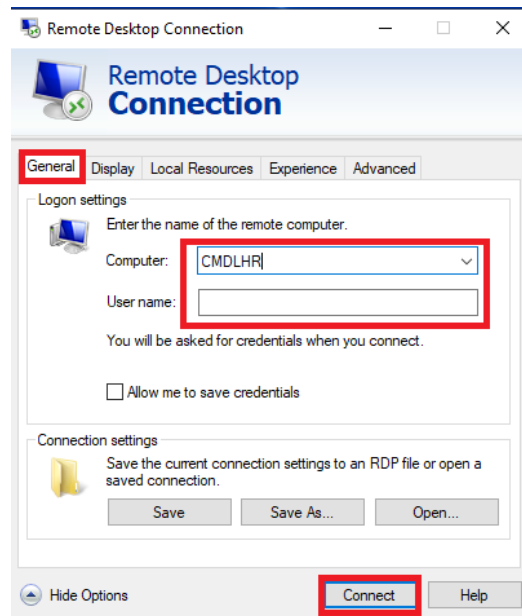

User name: None specified

You will be asked for credentials when you connect to this RD Gateway server.

☒ Use my RD Gateway credentials for the remote computer

OK Cancel

Step 6: Click General and enter your office Laptop name started with CMDLHR. Enter your domain credentials as CureMD\your Office Windows login name and click Connect.

Step 7: It will ask for you to authenticate. Enter your CureMD domain Windows login and password. It may ask to provide the credentials for 2 times, where first prompt will be to authenticate on the Secure RD Gateway and the second authentication prompt will be of your Office Laptop login authentication.

